

Children Presenting the Community's Strengths

1. The children tried to demonstrate that elders are showing their love and affection by advising children wherever they get them.
2. Youth are organized and work as car washers.
3. There are little recreation parks.
4. Presence of schools within a short distance.
5. There are few books within a library and students are using them.